PRIVACY NOTICE STATEMENT

Data Protection

We will store and process your information on the United Bank Limited computers and in any other way, as we deem fit. By “your information” we mean personal and financial information we (a) obtain from you or from third parties (such as joint account holders, credit reference agencies or other organisations when you apply for an account or any other products or service), or (b) learn from the way you use and manage your account(s), from the transactions you make and from the payments which are made to your account(s).

We, at United Bank Limited, will use your information to manage your account(s), give you statements and provide our services, for your convenience (including credit and/or behaviour scoring, market and product analysis), and to develop and improve our service to you, for example by informing you about products and services (including those of others) which may be of interest to you.

We will not disclose any such information outside of United Bank Limited except:

- to credit reference and fraud prevention agencies and other organisations who may record, use and give out information to other lenders and insurers. The information may be used to make assessments for credit and all types of insurance, for debt tracing and to prevent fraud and money laundering;
- to persons acting as our agents under a strict code of confidentiality;
- to anyone to whom we transfer or may transfer our rights and duties under your Customer Agreement;
- as required by law or regulation or market practice.

Otherwise we will keep information about you confidential.

If we transfer your information to a service provider or agent on another country, we will use our best efforts to ensure that the service provider or agent agrees to apply the same levels of protection, as we are required to apply to information held in the PAKISTAN and to use your information only for the purpose of providing the service to us.

Collection of Information

United Bank’s Online Banking uses cookies, i.e. small files which are stored on a user’s hard drive, as part of its normal service to enable information about customers and their preferences to be stored and to prevent unauthorised access to a customer’s account online. However, we do not use cookies on customers’ PCs to monitor an individual’s use of the Internet.

Security Notice

Please note that Internet communications are inherently not secure. Although the risk of unauthorized access is lessened by encryption of data, we cannot accept any responsibility/liability for the unauthorized access by a third party and/or corruption of data being sent by individuals to the offices of United Bank Limited. The Customer undertakes not to disclose his/her Password to any other person. In the event of the Password becoming known to someone other than the Account Holder, that person may be treated by the Bank as an acting agent of the Account Holder. The Account Holder will notify the Bank immediately if he/she suspects that the password has been compromised.
